

THE MAWSON TRAIL - TRANSPORT TO/FROM BLINMAN

If you are planning to ride the Mawson Trail from Adelaide, you will need to organise transport from the northern end of the trail at Blinman. Or get transport to Blinman & ride back to Adelaide, which is probably the best option as will give you more flexibility & less time restrictions to your ride.

See below for transport options

OPERATORS

Genesis Transport

Genesis operates a twice weekly coach from Adelaide to Copley. This service travels north from Hawker and goes to Parachilna and then Leigh Creek/Copley, with various stops along the way. If required a service can be arranged for drop off at Blinman at extra cost (approx. $50 extra p.p. and $25 per bike). These services require booking and cost $140 p.p. (Adelaide – Parachilna) or $170 (final destination Copley). Bike transport costs $45 per bike. This service runs all year round on Wednesday (leaving Adelaide) and Thursday (returning to Adelaide) and also on Saturday (leaving Adelaide) and Sunday (returning to Adelaide) between the 1st of April and the 24th of November. For more information visit www.genesistransport.com.au. To book ring (08) 8552 4000 or send an email to genesis@genesistransport.com.au.

Premier Stateliner – from the Adelaide Central Bus Station at 85 Franklin St.

Runs 2-4 buses per day from Adelaide to Port Augusta and back. One-way costs $62.80 for an adult and $31.40 for concession. The cost to take your bike on the bus is $25 for a fully assembled bike and $15 for a disassembled bike (front wheel off and strapped to rear and handle bars turned in). Bikes are considered excess luggage and is therefore subject to space availability and may be required to be carried on another service.
